

Policeman killed in Oyo robbery

ARMED robbers yesterday unleashed terror on Iseyin, Oyo State.

The seven-man robbery gang raided motorists, dispossessing them of unspecified amount of money and other valuables.

An eyewitness said the robbers used guns and cutlasses on their hapless victims.

No fewer than 10 vehicles were raided in the nearly 40 minutes operation.

Three persons were reportedly injured, and one killed.

The deceased, a policeman attached to the Iseyin Divisional Police Command, was said to have been killed in a gun duel with the hoodlums.
