

Fresh probe into PDP chieftain's death

THE Force Headquarters, Abuja has opened fresh investigation into the death of Alhaji Tasi Elder, a Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) chieftain in Katsina State.

A special panel raised by Police Chief Ogbonna

From Kolade Adeyemi, Kano

Onovo is to conduct the investigation.

Elder was said to have collapsed in the office of the Commissioner of Police, Alhaji Danazumi Doma and died at the Federal Medical Centre, Katsina, early last month.

There have been conflicting reasons on the cause of Elder's death.

His family political associates are alleging that he was murdered.

The Force Headquarters,

had shortly after Elder's death, directed the Zone 1 Headquarters to investigate the death. The zone has since submitted its report, it was learnt.

Though details of the report, is yet to be made public, insiders hinted that Doma may not be indicted.