Two suspected cultists die in Cross River

 By Our Reporter | Published 30/12/2009 | News | Unrated

A cult group has allegedly killed two youths in Ugep, Yakur Local Government Area of Cross River State, during an initiation.

It was gathered that the two men were believed to have been murdered in a violent ceremony that was held for new members on Sunday.

One of the bodies was picked on the road and taken to an undisclosed mortuary by the police.

The victim was identified as Igbor Igbor (27) and was the only son of his parents.

The body of the second victim is believed to have been buried in a concealed grave in the forest.

The Chairman of the council, Mr. Ubi Eta, ordered the police to unmask the perpetrators.

The police are trailing the suspected head of the group, who is believed to be on the run.
