Two electrocuted at Abuja Garden

By Bukola Amusan | Published 22/02/2010 | News | Unrated

Two persons were at the weekend electrocuted at the Bullet Garden, Federal Capital Territory (FCT).

The incident, which left several others injured, occurred around 4: pm on Saturday.

One of the deceased, simply identified as Musa, with others, was lifting a canopy when the rod on top of the canopy hit a high tension wire and sparked fire.

The canopy shocked three persons among those who were carrying it.

But one was revived some minutes later at the Asokoro General Hospital. Men of the Federal Road safety Corps (FRSC) later evacuated the bodies to the mortuary.

The banner features the University of Liverpool logo at the top. Below it, a dark blue bar contains a person icon and the word "Management". The main text reads "New Online Programmes" with a sun icon. A list of programs follows: "MBA International Business", "MBA Business in Emerging Markets", "MBA Entrepreneurship", and "MBA Leadership". A "more info" button with a play icon is positioned below the list. The bottom of the banner shows a graduate in a cap and gown against a globe background.
