

Grandma, grand-children killed in Lagos accident

A GRANDMOTHER and her two grand-children were killed at the weekend in Lagos while attempting to cross the road.

The incident occurred at Estate Bust Stop near the Third Mainland Bridge in Adekunle area of Yaba Local Government, at 9:30pm on Friday.

By Jude Isiguzo

They were crushed by a driver who escaped immediate the accident occurred.

It was gathered that all the three victims died on the spot.

The victims, identified as Mama Sikira, Rashidat Abiodun (8) and Jaminu

Abiodun (5), have already been buried by their family members according to Islamic rites.

Police spokesman, Frank Mba, a Superintendent, who confirmed the incident, told The Nation that efforts were being made to arrest the fleeing driver.

He called on anyone with information to report to the Divisional Police Officers (DPO), Denton Police Station.

Meanwhile, two suspected armed robbers have been arrested by policemen attached to Ilasan Police Station, Lekki, while on routine patrol.

They were arrested along Alpha Beach area, allegedly armed with charms, masks, two jack knives and other house-breaking implements.

The suspects' names were given as Dauda Guje and Ayo Olorunfemi. They have reportedly made confessional statements to the police.

Mba said that the suspects confessed to series of robbery and burglary within Lekki area.