Jos: More bodies found at Dogo Nahawa

 By Marie- Therese Pete | Published 23/03/2010 | News | Rating: ★★★★★

Deputy Speaker warns against inciting sermons

More bodies have been discovered at Dogo Nahawa and other villages in Jos South Local Government Area of Plateau State after the mass burial given to hundreds of bodies over two weeks ago.

Twelve bodies have been buried after the mass burial. Nineteen injured persons are still in hospitals.

Some bodies have also been picked in surrounding bushes.

The claims were made yesterday to reporters by the Shen Community Development Association (SCDA) at a press conference in Jos, the state capital.

The association's president, Mr. Rwang Chuwang, said contrary to a report by the police that 109 were killed during the attack on the community by suspected Fulani pastoralists, the community "is still facing the horror of the incident as residents are dying daily due to either multiple cuts or shock".

He added: "We are still counting the dead by the day. More bodies have been discovered after the mass burial. Some of those hospitalised have died. Some families were wiped out."

The community appealed to law enforcement agencies to provide adequate security for the residents.

State House of Assembly Deputy Speaker, Hon. Ibrahim Baba Hassan, yesterday warned religious leaders against inciting sermons.

He urged them to support efforts to return lasting peace to the state.

Hassan condemned, in a statement in Jos, what he described as "up-scaling of violence in Plateau State".

The deputy speaker, therefore, urged clerics to shun provocative "words" in their sermons.

He said: "We can no longer pretend that all is well when we wake up daily to hear of violence and bloodshed.

"What is happening in Plateau State is condemnable. It is also wicked, barbaric and ungodly."

He said perpetrators of violence in the state should bow their heads in shame as consequences of their action had rubbished Nigeria's image.

Hassan appealed to the government and people not to give up the search for peace.

"We should not give up on the assumption that since past efforts to achieve peace have failed, then we cannot succeed in finding lasting solution to Plateau crisis.

"The task may seem daunting, but it does not suggest that it cannot be attained," the lawmaker added.

your caption above is full of deceit and mischievous. Were the bodies found directly killed by the alleged Fulani's or after shocked therapy as you/they claimed. There is a difference between that dies as result of matcheting or shots from a gun and one dies as a result of shock. The only language the Beroms and Jang understood is violence and they have now met with people who will give them just that.

Hamza and Gany.

both of you are expressing the wrong emotions.No killing is the good thing to do.the first crisis was condemned by all and same for this one,possible you guys have short memories.we must recognise that we are been used most times in this country and unfortunately the north are more ready for manipulation than other parts especially when it is giving religious coloration(blame it on ignorance and poor level of education) the bottom line is that the north should ask themselves one question how far will this agenda go.
it started in kano,moved to the kajes in there homeland kaduna,then zonkwa,kachia,gombe,then the seyawas of tafawa balewa in Bauchi,haven subdued all this minority tribes its time to move to the middle belts using the disguise of elections the Biroms were attacked and they resisted,their mistake is that they did not learn from history of the brutality of the rampaging hausa fulani.

They will not stop,next might be nassarawa state the northbank makurdi.

But,God will raise a standard against the campaign and it will fail,because we desire peace only Adebisi you are right, and I agree with you, thier next target is Abuja, rumours went round some time ago, that violence wanted to erupt in Abuja and to day it was reported that strange text messages were going round Karu and neighbouring areas, that was exactly how it started Dogo Na Hawa, text messages were sent to people that Fulani will attack the community, which they did. May God save us from the vampires, whose interest is to destabilize the country in the name of religion. No body will try God's anger and go free. They and their sponsors will definitely pay for the innocent blood they have shaded.

"The only language the Beroms and Jang understood is violence and they have now met with people who will give them just that" Hamza or whatever you call yourself- My prayer for you is that the very same violence you wish on the Berom people should be visited on your mother and sisters (if you have any). May the true God help you!

am concerned that people like Gany and Hamzat still roam freely on the streets instead of being remanded in rehabilitation homes were they can get adequate attention from experts; what joy would one get in killing children and harmless women(old and young) in the dead of the night? it's evil, why all this black on black violence? why destroy a life when you cannot create one? all these 'religious' violence and persons like Gany and Hamzat are results of a failed educational system and the earlier the Government properly implements this Nomadic education programme, the better for us as a nation, because it will definitely move down south if care is not taken.

Are we not sure that these two persons (Gany and Hamzat) are insane?. How on earth can one justify the killing of innocent children and women not minding the fact that they were attacked when they were defenceless. In simple term this two guys are nothing but lunatics and should not be allowed to roam about freely in any human society b4 they infect others with their madness

@ HAMZA & GANY... YOU & ALL NIGERIANS KNOW THAT PEOPLE HAVE DIED & ARE STILL DYING IN THE HANDS OF THE HAUSA/FULANI OVER THE YEARS IN OUR DEAR NATION (MAITATSINE, BOKO HARAM, DAR UL ISLAM, KALAKATU, ETC...) IN THE NAME OF "JIHAD". I BELIEVE THE BOTH OF YOU ARE MUTALLAB'S BLOOD BROTHERS & YOU KNOW THAT THE HAUSA/FULANI DON'T NEED ANY EXCUSE TO START MURDERING PEOPLE LIKE THEY DID IN JOS RECENTLY. BUT HAMZA & GANI, THE JIHADISTS ARE ALL OVER ROUNDABOUT ISREAL & THE CAN'T DEFEAT THAT TINY/SMALL NATION BECAUSE THEIR TRUST IS IN JEHOVAH... SO ALSO IS THE BEROM NATION... TINY...SMALL...SCANTY LIKE THE JEWISH NATION, BUT MIGHTY... A BILLION OF YOUR HELL SENT & HELL BOUND JIHADISTS CANNOT EXTINGUISE THIS SMALL & MIGHTY NATION THEY MASSIVELY SURROUND BECAUSE... "JEHOVAH IS OUR GOD!!!"
