Six killed in herdsmen-farmers clash

By Our Reporter | Published 20/04/2010 | News | Unrated

Pastoralists said yesterday in Kaduna that six persons were killed in a herdsmen-farmers clash in Kauru Local Government Area.

Six hundred persons were also displaced, their umbrella organisation in West Africa, Pastoral Resolve (PARE), said.

The Executive Director of PARE, Dr Saleh Momaleh, told reporters in Kaduna that the deceased included a woman and five men.

He urged the state government to resettle the displaced victims.

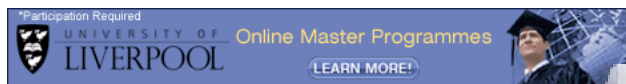

Momaleh said: "Only a genuine fact-finding commission can unearth the truth and bring the culprits to justice."

But Commissioner of Police Mohammed Tambari-Yabo said three persons died in the incident.

He said the situation had been brought under control.

Tambari-Yabo appealed to citizens to go about their normal business.

The police boss said some persons were helping security agencies in their investigations.
