A 31-year-old man, who claimed to have been in the Navy, Kizito Udueze, yesterday appeared before an Ebute-Meta Chief Magistrate's Court in Lagos for causing the death of a motor park tout.

Udueze was brought before Chief Magistrate Oyindamola Ogala on a one-count charge of murder.

The prosecutor, Inspector Eshiet Eshiet, said the tout, Abiodun Akanni, died after he was hit by a vehicle while running away from Udueze who wanted to attack him with a jack.

He said the incident occurred on March 26 at Palm Grove Bus Stop on Ikorodu Road, Lagos, but that Akanni died of his injuries two days later in a hospital.

The prosecutor added that Udueze wanted to attack Akanni after the deceased slapped him and left him with a bleeding nose.

Eshiet explained that the accused had alighted from a bus to separate a fight between the tout and another man over a disagreement on payment of bus fare.

He said as the deceased ran across Ikorodu Road to escape Udueze's blow, he was hit by an oncoming vehicle.

Eshiet noted that the offence contravened Section 325 of the Criminal Code of Lagos State.

The accused, however, pleaded not guilty, and was granted bail in the sum of N100,000 with two sureties in like sum.

The case was adjourned till June 7.

The court remanded a trader. Mohammed Idris, in prison custody for allegedly stabbing a business partner to death over a N1,400 debt.

The Magistrate, Mr M.O. Olubi, ordered that Idris, 22, facing a one-count-charge of murder, be detained in custody pending the advice of the State Director of Public Prosecution.

The Prosecutor, Inspector Sam Omoyeni, told the court that the offence was committed on April 11 at a patent medicine store at Marine Beach, Ijora Badia in Lagos.

Omoyeni explained that Idris, who had lent the deceased, Danjuma Mayaya, N1,400 went to his store to demand a refund.

The prosecutor said that a fight ensued following Mayaya's refusal to pay up and the accused stabbed the deceased with a pair of scissors.

Omoyeni said that Mayaya died while being taken to hospital.

Magistrate Olubi adjourned the matter till June 11.
