

Two-year-old cripple killed in Lagos fire

By Jude Isiguzo

A TWO year-old cripple was at the weekend killed in a fire at Amukoko, a Lagos suburb.

It was gathered that two buildings were affected in the incident which occurred at Fijabi Street on Friday afternoon.

According to eyewitness, the deceased, whose name was given as Shola, was sleeping in his parents' one-room apartment when the fire started.

Before his parents and neighbours could rescue him, the fire had reportedly consumed the entire building.

Most of the tenants in the two buildings lost properties worth millions of naira.

Airport NDLEA