The University of Port Harcourt (UNIPORT), Rivers State has been shut indefinitely, following the death of two undergraduates, including a final year student in the Computer Science Department, Mr. Joseph Edet. The move is to prevent a breakdown of law and order on the campus. The deceased lost their lives over the ownership of a controversial mobile telephone handset.

The Rivers State Police spokesperson, Rita Inoma-Abbey, yesterday confirmed the incident. He said the command was on top of the situation. No arrest has been made, Inoma-Abbey added.

In a statement, Inoma-Abbey said: "Murder of UNIPORT's students by Man O' War personnel, who is a student of UNIPORT, along with his Personal Assistant (PA.), Aide-de-Camp (ADC) and other cohorts, whose names are yet to be confirmed, beat up Edet and another male student, whose name is yet to be confirmed, leading to their admission in the hospital.

What most university authorities don't understand is that inside the so called Man-o-war are members of the cult. Also, the excessive power given to this man hunting group need to be reduced to the minimum. There is never a fair hearing whenever this group is tackling issues, they feel bigger than all other students and beat up their colleagues, forgetting their primary purposes of being in the school. All the pple involved in the death of the student should face persecution. Just because of 100 naira, two lives were lost (see the sun newspaper for more information).

This boys has started again, but i don't blame them, it is the school authority that i blame that gave the Man O War boys arms to protect themselves rather than protecting the students, I happen to graduate from there and see the way students are brutalised by there fellow students who are cultist but hide under the guise of Man O War men with immunity to graduate with whatever they come out with irrespective of there GP. The school authority should dis band the Man O War and make sure the culprits of this incident pay for there wicked deed.
