Four killed in Anambra cult clash

By Nwanosike Onu | Published 10/06/2010 | News | Unrated

A clash between rival cult groups in Awka, Anambra State, has left no fewer than four persons dead. Also scores of others were injured in the fracas, which entered its fourth day yesterday.

Yesterday, one of the groups stormed Amikwo Road at about 8pm, killing a student and inflicting machete cut on another at a saloon.

Police spokesman Emeka Chukwuemeka, who confirmed the incident, said the perpetrators will soon be apprehended.

Chukwuemeka said only one person was killed, but failed to give any details.

According to him, "the command has dispatched plain-cloth detectives to fish out the criminals.

"The Command is not resting on its oars; we are doing everything to ensure that they are caught. For now, I can only confirm one dead. I don't have any other details," Chukwuemeka said.

Sources said the student, who was identified as Ekene, graduated from the Nnamdi Azikwe University and was a corps member in one of the Northern states.

He was shot at his residence at Isiagu Street, Amikwo, Awka.

On Monday during the Imo Awka festival, a young man and his girlfriend were said to have been murdered by some cultists at a bar near Amenyi.

The girl, it was alleged, was not the target of the cultists but was hit by a stray bullet.
