THREE students of the St. Paul's College, an affiliate of the Nnamdi Azikiwe University (UNIZIK), Awka, have died while five others were severely injured in a ghastly motor accident on the Nibo-Agulu road. The tragedy occurred when they were travelling on a condolence visit to relations of one of their students who died earlier this month.

An eyewitness who spoke with CAMPUSLIFE said a tanker on high speed, collided with the bus the students were travelling in, smashing it into two.

The injured students are currently receiving medical attention at the Nnamdi Azikiwe University Teaching Hospital, Nnewi.
