

Three mobbed in Ogun community

From Ernest Nwokolo,
Abeokuta

THREE persons whose identities are not yet known were burnt to death yesterday at Oritamerin area in Ilisan community, Ogun state, when a mob attacked them before setting them ablaze.

The victims were said to be conveying the remains of their friend in a casket.

Their deceased colleague was allegedly killed in a questionable circumstance on Wednesday when the community's youths swooped on them.

The Nation gathered that the youths were angry that the victims had the effrontery to evacuate the remains of their friend who was said to be a robbery suspect.

The Ogun State Police Public Relations Officer, Mr Olumuyiwa Adejobi, confirmed the incident.
