same parents.

Their father, Geoffrey Onuguhu, works in Abuja.

Mariam, their mother, lives in Kano, with her five children.

A neighbour, Alhaji Abubakar Maje, said the deceased left for school in the morning, but when they failed to return home at about 7 pm, one of their sisters became worried and raised the alarm.

Maje said a search for the missing kids did not yield any result.

The incident, he said, was immediately reported to security agencies.

The Fire Brigade Service officials retrieved the deceased's bodies from the pool and deposited them at the Murtala Mohammed Specialist Hospital mortuary, Kano.

Their father said: "It is unfortunate that I am mourning my two sons when I should be celebrating my 49th birthday."
