

One dies in bank robbery

From Osagie Otabor, Benin

ONE person was feared dead yesterday after armed robbers attacked a first generation bank at Uromi in Edo State.

It was learnt that three others sustained injuries.

Sources said the robbers, who came to the town through Agbor, attacked the bank at about 10am yesterday morning.

He could not confirm whether the robbers stole any money.

State Police spokesman ASP Peter Ogboi could not be reached for comments.
