Asaba

It was learnt that Pastor Charles was worried over his brother's mental health and tried to take him home from the streets by force.

An eyewitness said there was a scuffle when the deceased brought his brother to the family home.

Godwin allegedly picked up a machete and killed his brother.

The identity of the church to which the late pastor belongs could not be ascertained.

The remains of Charles have been deposited at the Federal Medical Centre, Asaba.

Police spokesman Charles Muka confirmed the incident. He said investigations have started.
