

Three arrested with woman's remains

THERE was pandemonium yesterday in Abak-Obong, Etim

Ekpo Local Government Area of Akwa Ibom State, following the arrest of three men, including a juju priest, found with the remains of a woman.

The youth leader, Ubong Udo Iko, said the priest, identified as Ekeke de Fokomok, hails from the neighbouring village of Uruk Ata 11.

He said some youths cut-

From Inibong Ekponta,
Uyo

ting woods in the bush apprehended the suspects.

Iko said the deceased, a mother of two from Ikot Akpan Ayara village in Ukanafun Local Government Area, was de Fokomok's relative.

The village head, Chief Bassey Ikpaisong, confirmed the incident, saying the suspects have been handed over to the police at Etim Ekpo Council.