ARMED robbers struck again in Port Harcourt, the Rivers State capital Monday, killing a taxi driver and dispossessing the two passengers of a huge sum of money.

The robbery took place at Ogbunabali area of the Rivers State capital.

The armed robbers, it was learnt, suddenly emerged in a car, shooting sporadically, before seizing from the boot of the car, the undisclosed huge sum of money.

A witness, who saw the gunmen before they attacked their targets, said they chased the taxi and opened fire, forcing passersby and residents of the densely-populated area to run for life.

The Rivers police Spokesman, Mr. Akin Fakorede, who confirmed the incident, said policemen were on the trail of the armed robbers.

For me, the statement by the Rivers police spokesman that the policemen are on the trail of the armed robbers is the end of the news. The bereaved should go and bury their dead while the armed robbery victims should believe God for another financial breakthrough. In Nigeria it is highly impossible to believe such statements from the police because nothing good will come out of the investigation.

I agree with Daniei-nothing will come out the promise of the police. The victims should just go bear their misfortune and carry on with their lives.Shikena.
