They said the State Command swooped on the robbers and killed two of them in a gun duel.

Two rifles and ammunition were recovered from the robbers.

Police Public Relations Officer Emeka Chukwuemeka confirmed the incident yesterday.

Commissioner of Police Muktar Ibrahim said in Awka yesterday that the command would ensure a crime-free Christmas celebration.

He urged the people to go about their normal businesses without fear.

Ibrahim said: "The command is not sleeping and we are going to continue in this form even beyond this festive period. I praise my men for their bravery and commitment."
