FOUR persons were crushed on Saturday in Abraka, Ethiope East Local Government ,Delta State.

An eyewitness said the accident involving two motorcyclists carrying two passengers each occurred at 3.35pm.

He said they were returning from a beach party in Abraka and on getting to a junction, a commercial bus ran into them.

The source said the bus, which was coming from the opposite direction crushed the two cyclists with their passengers.

Officials of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) saved the bus driver from being lynched by an angry mob.
