

Police arrest three for alleged murder

Jude Isiguzo

POLICE detectives attached to the homicide section of the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), Panti Yaba, Lagos, have begun investigation into the alleged murder of one Michael Afolabi on New Year day.

The deceased, a graduate of Ibadan Polytechnic, was allegedly stabbed to death during a street carnival at the Jakande Estate, Ilasan.

He was allegedly stabbed severally on the head, neck and other parts of his body by some boys in the neighbourhood.

It was learnt that that the suspects who killed Afolabi poured alcohol on him while he was passing through the area where the carnival was being held and the deceased demanded an explanation.

The suspects, Segun Amao, Adeleke Olarenwaju and Emmanuel Ezebunna, have been on the wanted list of the police in Ilasan for a similar offence committed last December.

Police spokesperson Frank Mba confirmed the incident.

He said: "The incident happened on January 1st about 3.00pm. The victim just returned from a trip to Malaysia."