

Robbery suspect killed in Edo

From Osagie Otabor, Benin

A robbery suspect has been killed by the police in Ekpoma, Esan West Local Government of Edo State.

This is coming 24 hours after another suspect was killed on the Benin bye-pass.

The suspect was said to have been killed while members of his gang were robbing some students of the Ambrose Alli University, on the popular Poultry Road.

A policeman was injured in the shoot-out.

Items recovered are two cut to size single barrel guns, two laptops, one home theatre system with speakers, three wrist watches and five handsets.

Divisional Police Officer (DPO) Amos Opadoja confirmed the incident.
