

Man stabbed to death in Lagos beach

• Robbery suspect held

By Titilayo Banjoko

A MAN, simply identified as Ope, has been stabbed to death at Oniru beach in Victoria Island, Lagos. The incident occurred around 6am on Sunday.

It was gathered that Sodiq Mufutau stabbed Ope with a broken bottle during an argument. Ope died on the spot.

Mufutau has been arrested by detectives attached to the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), Panti, Yaba.

Police spokesman Samuel Jinadu confirmed the incident. He said that the victim's body had been deposited at a public mortuary.

Jinadu said another male suspect, Isioma Adigwe, had been arrested for illegal possession of arms by a police patrol team attached to Elewere Divisional Police Station, Agege.

A single barrel shot gun and two live cartridges, concealed in a black nylon bag, were recovered from the suspect.

Adigwe is being held at Panti, Yaba.