

One dead in Anambra fire

A 23- year- old Awa Kalu was yesterday killed by an inferno that engulfed his apartment at 17 Kpughemobi Street, Ogbaru Local Government, Anambra State.

The deceased, who hailed from Akanu Ohofia of Abia State, was burnt beyond recognition. Goods worth several millions of naira were also destroyed.

From Adimike George,
Onitsha

A source said the inferno started at about 2pm when a teenager allegedly threw fireworks at the building. The fire reportedly consumed cash, property and other personal effects. Caretaker of the house Donatus Onu said the fire started from one of the tenants' apartment.