

Two killed in Lagos clash

By Titilayo Banjoko

TTWO people were yesterday said to have been killed in a clash between rival groups at Orile-Coker, Lagos.

The dead, whose identities could not be ascertained, were said to be members of the warring gangs.

It was learnt that the groups had been at each other's throat for weeks. Their rivalry reached an anti-climax on Sunday when they clashed.

Policemen attached to Orile Police Division restored peace three hours after the incident.

The Divisional Police Officer (DPO), Robinson Eregare, an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP), was supervising his men when The Nation got to the scene.

He said police responded to a distress call and restore order in the area.
