

global phenomenon. My greatest worry, however, is that many of us still carry on defiantly as if there was no way we could assist such physically challenged persons need education but "a qualitative one that can prepare them for the greater challenges of life".

Pedestrian crushed

AN unidentified man was yesterday killed as he attempted to across Apapa-Oshodi Expressway, Lagos, at Iyana-Isole bus stop.

The driver of the trailer, with registration number (Lagos) YF821KJA, was arrested and detained at the Daleko Police Station, Mushin.

He was allegedly attempting to overtake a Julius Berger vehicle with registration number (Abuja) XR213ABC when he killed the pedestrian.

An eyewitness said: "I was right here when it happened.

By Osas Robert, Hameed Yekini and Shehu Bello

The Julius Berger vehicle, the trailer carrying a container, and a Camry car were struggling for a space. The trailer was trying to overtake the Julius Berger vehicle. But the man was already on the roadside trying to cross. He was knocked down by the trailer."

A Lagos State Traffic Management Authority (LASTMA) official Jonathan Ojo said the absence of a pedestrian bridge in the area was responsible for the accident.

Sminar for labour unions

By Innocent Amomoh

THE Centre for Labour Advocacy (CLA) will in Januray organise a three-day West African sub-regional seminar for unions in federal ministries