

Two women beheaded in Ogun

By Adebisi Onanuga 30/12/2011 00:05:00

The joy of the Yuletide period was short lived for two families in Idolehin village, Ado-Odo Local Government area of Ogun State as two of their women were beheaded by unknown assailants.

The heads of the women, Funmilayo Awosah and Jodenu Ayinke, were taken away by their unknown assailants.

The incident, it was learnt, took place during the night of the Boxing Day at Abule Babalawo, Idolehin Village in Ado-Odo.

Residents said they have been having problems with some land speculators, who are terrorising them over land.

Detectives from the State Investigation Department, Eleweran in Abeokuta are investigating the murder.

Spokesman of the Ogun State Police Command, Mr. Muyiwa Adejobi confirmed the incident.

Adejobi said the command has begun investigation into the murder.

The people of Idolehin village have been having a running battle with land speculators.

On June 29, a farmer in the village, Mr. Abiodun Ogungbe, was abducted in the presence of his wife and his dead body was later found by the roadside where it was dumped by his assailants.

Detectives are still conducting investigation into the incident.

Which kind country be this oo. I don tire to hear bad news. Which day man pikin after a very hard days job will find good and elevating news in our newspapers. Does it mean that from east to west, north to south nothing good is happening?

The government of Ogun State needs to take an urgent step to curb this development before it degenerated into a communal war. Some citizens of Ado-odo (Aworis) have taken a fight against Eguns who have been living in that area for over 200 years. According to the history I was told the Aworis are laying claims to the lands belonging to the people and this has resulted into serious clashes. Beyond the two women stated above, the community also lost two of their youths. Governor Amosun should take a drastic step to combat this evil. Nobody brought land here.
