

Man killed in Delta

ASSAILANTS yesterday beheaded a man, simply identified as Chief Okpor, at Utagbe community in Kwale, Ndokwa West Local Government of Delta State.

It was learnt that Okpor was coming back from his farm when he was attacked.

The victim, it was gathered, was a top official in the State Civil Service

Okpor was said to have gone to his farm after office hours and was coming back

From Okungbowa
Alwerle, Asaba

home when he was attacked with a machete.

His body has been deposited at an undisclosed hospital in Kwale.

A source said the family was yet to figure out the motive behind the murder.

Police spokesman Charles Muka said the police were yet to determine if the killers were ritualists or assassins.