Staff of the Borno State Housing Corporation were thrown into mourning mood on Wednesday following the killing of their General Manager Engr. Isa Madu Ngaram.

Ngaram was reportedly killed by unknown gunmen who raided his office, situated in Abbaganaram ward of Maiduguri metropolis.

Our correspondent gathered that the incident occurred at about 11.00am when two men, armed with AK47 rifles trailed the victim to his office and gunned him down while attempting to enter his car parked behind the office.

The assailants reportedly shot the deceased at close range on the head and fired several shot in the air before fleeing the scene with his car.

Spokesman of the state police command, Jubrin Gideon, told newsmen on phone that he will send a statement on the incident, but had not done so as at press time. However a security who source confirmed the incident said the assailants fled before the security agents arrived the scene, adding that investigation has commenced to apprehend the fleeing suspects.
