Five injured as trailer crushes vehicle

Posted by: Precious Igbonwelundu Posted date: September 25, 2012 In: News | comment : 0

Angry commercial motorcyclists (Okada riders) yesterday converged at the entrance to a company on Fatai Atere Way in Mushin, Lagos.

They were protesting the crushing of a car by a trailer.

Five people were injured in the car, including a two-year-old boy, Olalade Mubarak. The boy was in a critical condition yesterday.

The accident victims include Mr Akeem Olalade, his wife, Funmi, and Mubarak, their son. There were also two others. One of them was identified as Momo Malik and another person.

Olalade, a civil engineer, said: "I was driving towards Oshodi and, suddenly, I saw this trailer without light reversing on the expressway. I quickly swerved, but we were trapped under it.

"It would have been a completely differently story if I had not tried to avoid the trailer."

He urged the reporter to call his father and sister.

At the Accident and Emergency Unit of the Mushin General Hospital, where the victims were taken, sympathisers, including Okada riders, pressurised the medics to attend to the victims, who were writhing in pains.

The accident occurred about 8pm. It was reportedly caused by the trailer which eyewitnesses said crushed the Audi salon car, with registration number (Lagos) FS330EKY, which had five occupants.
