Six persons were yesterday killed in an accident on the Ibadan/Oyo Expressway'

Fifteen people were injured.

The accident occurred in Fidity.

It was gathered that the tyres of a Sokoto-bound bus burst and it somersaulted.

Sources said the victims were carried off the road by policemen and men of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC).

The injured were taken to the State Hospital, Oyo, and the bodies of the deceased have been deposited at the hospital's mortuary.

The Acting Medical Officer of the hospital, Dr. Alayo Ayo, said: "Six persons have been confirmed dead. We are treating 15 persons with crush injuries, ragged laceration and flush avulsion, even though we are yet to see their relations. We are trying to contact them through the victims' mobile phones and we are optimistic that they will respond. Saving their lives is the most important thing."
