Ondo council chief, others die in auto-crash

Posted by: Damisi Ojo, Akure Posted date: November 03, 2012 In: Featured, News | comment : 21

The Interim Chairman of Akoko South West Local Government Area of Ondo State, Mrs. Opeyemi Adefarati is dead.

She died in an auto crash along with some other passengers at Iwaro Oka junction, along the Akungba-Akoko/Abuja road.

An eyewitness said, "It was a horrible sight to behold on Thursday night when a trailer rammed into a number of vehicles, and instantly killing all the occupants of the vehicles at the Iwaro Oka junction".

According to reports, prominent among the victims was Mrs. Adefarati, who was said to have been killed in the accident, which occurred barely three kilometers to her residence.

She was said to be returning from Akure, the state capital, where she went to attend a political meeting.

Until her death, Mrs. Adefarati was a prominent grassroot politician and an advocate of women emancipation in the area. She has been active politically in the last 10 years, and was said to have taken very active part during the last governorship election in the state.

Her interest in politics started when she joined the Alliance for Democracy (AD) in the local government. She would later join the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) where she defeated the incumbent then Hon. Abiodun Jerome in the primary election of House of Assembly for Akoko South West Constituency 1 in 2007. She, however, lost the general election to the present Deputy Speaker of Ondo State House of Assembly, Hon.Dare Emiola.

Late Adefarati later defected to Labour Party (LP) and again contested the primary election, which she lost again.

This is very sad. I think it is high time govt did something about these trailer drivers. They drive recklessly without minding other road users. May her soul and others rest in perfect peace

May her gentle soul rest in peace. Late Mrs. Adefarati was the bread winner of the family with a lot of dependants. The deceased sponsored education of children of her daughter who had lost her husband at early age. Our caring heart governor,Dr. Olusegun Mimiko is hereby beseeched to provide automatic employment for the jobless daughter to assuage plight of some of her dependants.

It is very sad. The Ondo state Government must do something urgently about that road to prevent future occurrence. The road should be close to heavy vehicles

The local toll fees just have to stop for now. Since the the ban on trailers passing the Iwaro Oka road is still in progress. May God give the families of the deseased the fortitude to bear the irreparable loss.
