

Warri Wolves player, Solomon Oboh is dead

Osemwengie Ben Ogbemudia

Solomon Oboh , a player with Warri Wolves Football Club of Warri is dead.

The right full back died in a ghastly motor accident at Agbarho,( 2 Kilometres from Warri) immediately after his team match with Shooting Stars of Ibadan on Sunday.

Oboh who was born on the 13th, September, 1989 played for amateur side, Bisalo Football Club, Warri and Paulson Football Club, Benin before joining Delta United in 2007

He has featured twice this season due to competitive nature of his position.

Management of Warri Wolves said they regretted the dead of Solomon Oboh.

“We wishes to announce the passing on of our right full back., Solomon Oboh who died in a ghastly motor accident at Agbarho”.

The Chairman of the Delta State Sports Commission, Mr Pinnick Amaju today visited the Camp of Warri Wolves and met with the rest players who wept profusely.

Hon. Amaju who was still in a state of shock commiserated with the Family and said the Club would be fully involved in the burial of the youthful player.

“May the Almighty God grant us the will to bear the loss”. He said