

traffic."

branch, Mrs. Nelly Silver-Ajaloye (left) and the Welfare Secretary, Mr. Sa

LAUTECH student found dead

WHO killed Miss Adaramoye Oluwaseun, a 100-level student of the Department of Management and Accounting, Ladoke Akintola University of Technology (LAUTECH), Ogbomoso, Oyo State?

Was she murdered by ritualists? These are the questions on the minds of students and policemen handling the case.

The mutilated body of the Ondo State-born Oluwaseun was found in a building under construction around Jastok Guest House last

From Bode Durojaiye, Ogbomoso

Thursday.

Her skull and stomach were open. Her brain and some organs were missing. Her private part was shaven.

It was learnt that Oluwaseun left home two Sundays ago and her whereabouts was unknown until last Wednesday, when she was absent at an examination.

It was learnt that her family picked up her remains last Friday for burial.

Students have urged the police to expose her killer(s).

One of them, who pleaded for anonymity, said: "We have had enough of these dastardly acts. We appreciate efforts by the police to fish out those involved in the murder and prosecute them. Our lives are not safe.

"We are often attacked by armed criminals, with nobody to come to our rescue. Several reports have been lodged in the past, but nothing was done. We are at the mercy of God."

Tokyo's case: Court disqualifies