has been groaning under crisis due to factionalisation and rejection of harmonisation and reconciliation by those backing the illegal executive committee.

Finnih added: "All the efforts we have put in place in this regard have been frustrated by Chief Bode George and his group".

The Elders Council chairman maintained that the Lagos State Executive Committee should be dissolved, following the INEC's complaint that the congress that produced it was not properly conducted.

He, therefore, appealed for the setting up of a caretaker committee to administer the party, pending the time new congresses would be conducted at the ward, local and state levels.

Tanker crashes into NIPOST office

• One killed, cars damaged

From Okodili Ndidi, Owerri

IT was a gory sight yesterday when a petrol tanker in Owerri, the Imo State capital, lost control and crushed a cart pusher after it ran into NIPOST office.

was coming from Okigwe Road and heading to Douglas Road.

shielding the crowd from the gory sight.

The car, with Ebonyi State registration number AKL629AA, was crushed beyond recognition while the cart driver was squeezed in the boot.

When our reporter visited the scene, men of the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) from Owerri Municipal Council secretariat, opposite the post office had cordoned off the area to

An eyewitness, Solomon Nwaiwu, said the driver lost control and wanted to use the median as a wedge but unfortunately the vehicle skidded off the gutter.

"I was about to cross when I saw the driver struggling with the vehicle. I shouted. Before I could finish the accident had occurred."

The body of the cart pusher has been deposited at the Federal Medical Centre (FMC), Owerri.

Police spokesperson Mrs. Joy Elemoko confirmed the incident.
