Nine Adamawa PDP delegates die in road crash

NO fewer than nine Adamawa delegates to weekend's Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) mini-national convention died in a car crash on their way from Abuja yesterday morning.

The victims were believed to be youths.

The accident occurred on the Abuja-Jos highway.

The Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) confirmed the crash, saying there was an accident about 38 kilometres from Kafanchan on the Kafanchan-Forest route, at 8am yesterday.

The FRSC said it involved two vehicles - a Volkswagen Salon with registration number RAN 107 SA and a Toyota Hiace bus with registration number XA 399 SHR.

It added that nine people died in the crash and nine others injured. The victims were taken to the General Hospital in Kafanchan.
