Sacked policeman kills man, 40, in Jigawa

Posted by: Ahmed Rufa'i, Dutse in News 13 hours ago

A dismissed policeman has killed a 40-year-old man, simply identified as Malam Magaji, and injured three others at Galadanchi Quarters in Ringim Local Government Area of Jigawa State.

The Commandant of the state Command of the Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC), Malam Muhammad Gigado Fari, addressed reporters on the killing.

He identified the killer as "Abbati, a former police constable".

The NSCDC commandant said Abbati "attacked and killed a middle-aged man over a minor dispute".

He gave the name of the victim as Magaji Ringim who, until his death, was a worker at the School of Legal Studies, Ringim.

Three others, Auwalu Dan Dungure, Amadu Abdullahi and Hafizu Aminu, were seriously injured and taken to Aminu Kano Teaching Hospital, Kano, for treatment.

The suspect was reportedly arrested by the NSCDC and the police.
