Police officer killed, couple injured in Ogun road accident

Posted by: Ernest Nwokolo in News Update 2 days ago

A Superintendent of Police, Mr Folahan Ogunkoya died on Saturday while an un-identified couple were critically injured when a car being driven by Ogunkoya collided with the couples' jeep on Siun stretch of the Abeokuta – Sagamu road.

The Police officer until his death in auto – crash, was the head of the Anti-Robbery Squad unit of the Nigeria Police Force(NPF), Ogun State Command.

It was learnt that he was travelling from Abeokuta to Ijebu-Ode for a social function, lost control and veered off into another lane before running into an oncoming Toyota Prado Jeep few meters to DayWaterman College along Abeokuta – Sagamu road.

Public Relations Office (PRO) of the Ogun state Traffic Compliance Agency (TRACE), Mr Tunde Akinbiyi, who confirmed the accident, said the deceased was driving in his ash coloured Honda car marked (LAGOS) MZ 717 AAA when he lost control of the wheel and crashed into another vehicle.

Witness said while the deceased's car split into three pieces with his remains thrown out of the wreckage while the Prado Toyota jeep carrying the couple caught fire following accident impact.

According to Akinbiyi, the couple have been taken to the State Hospital, Ijaye, Abeokuta for treatment while the remains of the deceased police boss was also taken to same Hospital.
