Four die in Katsina auto crash

Posted by: El-zaharadeen Umar in News 4 days ago

Four people were reported to have died while six others sustained various degrees of injury in a car accident on the Katsina-Batsari Road at Sabon Garin Malam Yahuza village in Batagarawa Local Government Area.

It was learnt that the accident involved two Translate motorcycle.

The Katsina State Commander of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) Habu Dauda said two the vehicles involved in the accident were a Toyota Saris, with registration number, KTN 380 DK, as well as an Evco Tipper, with registration number LMS 97 XA.

Dauda said four people died and six others, comprising three males and three females, were injured.

The FRSC commander added that the injured were receiving treatment at the Katsina General Hospital.

He attributed the crash to careless driving and dangerous overtaking.

Dauda said no items were recovered from the victims.
