Man dies in Aba road accidents

Posted by: Sunny Nwankwo, Aba in News 13 hours ago

An unidentified man has been killed in two accidents in Aba, Abia State.

The victim was hit by two vehicles around 5pm on Wednesday at Brass Junction on the Aba-Owerri road, beside the State Polytechnic.

An eyewitness, simply identified as Chizoba, said the drivers of both vehicles were trying to escape from the State Task Force on Environment and Allied Matters when they hit the victim.

The first vehicle that hit the victim was an L300 commercial bus.

It was learnt that the victim died on the spot.

Another eyewitness, Uchenna Nwokoma, said the victim was a staff of Aba North Local Government Council.

Nwokoma said the victim was among the council workers, who distributed fertiliser to farmers in the local government.

No identification card was found on the man and his handset was missing.

The Task Force Chairman, Capt. Awa Udensi (rtd.), said he was out of town and could not say much about the incident.

He said he was told that the taskforce arrested a bus driver, who ran away after knocking down a pedestrian on the Aba-Owerri road.
