Baby found dead in sack

From Sunny Nwankwo, Aba

A BABY girl, suspected to be about a week old, was found dead in a sack in Aba, Abia State. The baby was found on a railway track by Hiace Park off Okigwe Road.

This is coming weeks after an unidentified woman dumped a day-old baby boy in a gutter on Omuma Road.

Sources said some people, who passed by the track before dawn said they noticed movement inside the sack, but could not open the bag because they were afraid to.

A source said the situation was so tensed that people who were coming behind took another route.

The source said: "Initially, we suspected that it could be a snake. But to the surprise of all, when the bag was opened around 6am by a group of boys who wielded sticks, it was discovered that it is a baby girl who was inside the bag."

Police spokesman Geoffrey Ogbonna said he was yet to be briefed on the incident.
