

THE NATION WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 11, 2013

10 APGA members feared dead in road accident

From Okodili Ndidi, Owerri

TEN people were yesterday feared dead in an accident, which occurred at Enyiogugu on the Owerri/Umuahia Road in Imo State.

The victims were said to be members of the All Progressives Grand Alliance (APGA), who were going for a rally in Owerri.

According to an eyewitness, a Mercedes Benz lorry, whose driver was speeding, lost control and rammed into an L300 bus, which was conveying the APGA supporters.

The state Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC), Yusuf Salami, who confirmed the accident, said only one person died on the spot, while 13 others survived with serious injuries.

He warned motorists against over speeding and dangerous driving during the Yuletide.

How 'baby factory' operators