

Police kill robber in Lagos

• Two critically wounded

OPERATIVES of the Special Anti-Robbery Squad in Lagos yesterday shot to death a member of a robbery gang at the Adeniji Adele Area of the metropolis.

Two other members of the gang were critically wounded.

The suspects, according to sources, had engaged the policemen in a gun battle after they were intercepted.

The police said their men were tipped off about the suspects, who were driving a blue Toyota Matrix Car with registration No. FST 368 CF at about 3.00am yesterday.

They were said to be out on an operation.

The police team immediately swung into action and went after the suspects who, on sighting the policemen, opened fire.

The policemen returned fire and overpowered the hoodlums.

The suspected robbers are believed to have moved to Adeniji Adele from Jakande Estate, Isolo after an earlier operation.

The wounded suspects- Femi Akogun (25) and Tunbosun Adenekan (21)- were rushed to the hospital for treatment.

Recovered from them were two double barrel pistols, 16 live ammunition, three expended cartridges, two laptops, 27 stolen phones and house breaking tools, among others.
