

January 1 at Etegwé, a suburb of Yenagoa.

'Cult members' kill policeman

From Precious Dikewoha,
Port Harcourt

A POLICE sergeant, Osih Dornmene, serving at Azikiwe Police Station on the Mile 2 axis of Port Harcourt was yesterday killed by suspected cult members.

They were said to have stabbed him to death after sighting him at Azikiwe Street at night.

The divisional police officer said he had no capacity to brief the press on the matter, but confirmed that Dornmene was killed by suspected cult members.

Our reporter phoned the police spokesman Ahmad Mohammad, but his line was unavailable. A text message was sent to him, which he did not reply.