11 killed in Kogi accident

From Muhammad Bashir,
Lokoja

ELEVEN people have been killed in a pre-dawn accident in Offeji village on the Ankpa-Anyigba road.

It was gathered that the accident occurred when a white Toyota Hiace bus collided with a blue truck.

State Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps Olakunle Motajo blamed the accident on wrong overtaking.

He urged motorists to be more careful.

Motajo said 14 people were involved in the accident; 11 died and three were injured, including two men, six women and three children.

The sector commander said the injured were taken to Grimmard Hospital at Anyigba and the bodies deposited at the mortuary.
