

Gunmen kill medical officer

A Chief Nursing Officer in Dala Orthopaedic Hospital, Kano, Abreham Akaya, was yesterday killed by seven gunmen, who invaded his patent medicine store in Tukurawa Quarters, Taurani Local Government Area.

The incident, according to residents, occurred at 10 p.m. when the deceased received several bullets from his attackers after closing for the day.

It was gathered that the late Akaya, who hailed from Kogi State, was said to have received various death threats.

As a result of this, the late Akaya decided to relocate his family to Kogi, fear of the unknown.

Police spokesman Magaji Majia said some robbers invaded Akaya's shop and shot him. He said they made away with money, car and other valuables.

Majiya added that police had begun investigating the incident.
