

One killed, many injured in Onitsha clash

ONE person was confirmed dead, while many were injured yesterday when people suspected to be touts clashed at the Aba central motor park, Upper Iwaka, Onitsha in Anambra State.

The clash involved those suspected to be members of Ndi Ukwu Aziza and Ndi Ukwuotosi.

The Nation learnt that 27 persons, including travellers and drivers, were allegedly injured.

Although police authority

From Nwanosike Onu, Awka

said nobody died, a witness said one person was killed.

He said the injured were mostly women and children, who were likely to be travellers and hawkers.

One of the victims, who said he was a loader, Mr. Chinedu Anyigor, from Ebonyi State, narrated that the incident occurred when a group of touts, called Ndi Ukwu Aziza, allegedly recruited from Ogbaru youths, were relieved of their job, following alleged criminal activities.

"What happened was that somebody given the terminus by the government to manage, sought the help of Ogbaru youths. They came to the terminus and described themselves as Ndi Ukwu Aziza.

"They were in charge of collection of revenue at the terminus, but when their activities became unbearable, they were asked to leave and another group, Ndi Ukwu Ootosi, took over.

"The sacked group stormed the terminus yesterday and attacked people. They shot dead one person."

The victim said property worth millions of naira were destroyed.

He urged security agencies and government to intervene and restore law and order.

The Area Commander in Onitsha, Benjamin Wordu, confirmed the incident.

He said the command had deployed policemen to restore peace.

Wordu confirmed the arrest of suspects.
