KWARA AUTOCRASH

Basketballer dies, three injured

THE Kwara Commissioner for Sports and Youth Development, Saheed Popoola, on Friday confirmed the death of a member of Kwara Falcons, the state's male basketball team.

Popoola told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Ilorin that four of the newly signed players were involved in an auto accident on Feb. 27.

He said the accident occurred at Ote, in Asa Local Government Area of the state during which Joseph Aduku, 33, died.

The commissioner added that three other players sustained various degrees of injuries during the accident and were receiving treatment at the University of Ilorin Teaching Hospital (UITH).

He noted that one of them who was thrown into coma after the accident had regained consciousness.

Popoola, who described the accident as unfortunate, condoled with the family of the deceased and those that sustained injuries.
