

the suspects.

Ayinde said the corps would work the State Parents Teachers Association (PTA), chaired by Dr. Ademola Ekundayo, to rehabilitate the suspects.

23 people feared killed at Obosi

THERE is tension at Obosi in Idemmili North Local Government Area of Anambra State, following the alleged killing of 23 people in a renewed 'cult-like clash' over who controls the community.

A prominent indigene, Prince Emeka Ike Orizu, who said he was nearly killed, told The Nation that there was crisis the town and many youths had been killed.

He called for an investigation into the alleged killings so that the culprits would be arrested.

The Director, State Security

From Odogwu Emeka
Odogwu, Nnewi

Service (SSS) in Anambra State, Mr. Alexander Okeiyi, confirmed the incident, but attributed it to the group his men dislodged last year, which was involved in crimes.

The Commissioner of Police, Usman Gwary, who spoke through the command's spokesman, Emeka Chukwuemeka, confirmed the incident, but said he did not have the figure of the casualties.

Our operations intact, says Medview Airlines

By Kelvin Osa Okunbor

THE management of Medview Airlines yesterday denied that its operations have been grounded by the Nigerian Civil Aviation Authority (NCAA), over the false fire alarm raised by passengers on its Boeing 737 aircraft on Saturday. The NCAA, the airline said, has since cleared the aircraft and allowed it for operations.