Posted by: Our Reporter in News 16 hours ago

The carnage against Tiv farmers continued yesterday in Tse Getim and Uzer villages, Tombo ward, Logo Local Government Area of Benue State.

Four farmers were killed by the marauders.

The attackers took over Wukari- Abins, which is 10 minutes drive to Anyiin, the country home of Governor Gabriel Suswam.

The councillor representing Tombo, Atindiga Tsebee, told The Nation on phone that he fled into the bush with his family.

"I'm calling you from the bush, the Fulani militias came with weapons and started shooting at everyone they saw.

"They also set houses ablaze in Uzer and Tse Getim. I saw four bodies," Atindiga said.

The councillor expressed concern that Suswam's hometown is guarded by over 100 policemen and soldiers while the surrounding villages are left at the mercy of the Fulani.

The Chairman of Tiv Market Union (TMU) in Tombo ward, Tyo Gumsi, said he suspected a grand plot to exterminate the Tombo people.

Gumsi described the purported the ceasefire signed by Brig Gen. Atom Akpera and Miyetti Allah Cattle Association President Bello Badejo as a plot to sacrificed the Tombo people.
